EVENING, 7.30pm at St George's Church, Waterlooville

Songs of Praise
With the
PORTSMOUTH CITADEL (Salvation Army) BAND
Combined Churches of Waterlooville Choir

Musical Director: Roderick Starr
Organ: Nigel Smith

Founded in 1880, Portsmouth Citadel Band is one of the oldest and most well known corps bands within the Salvation Army. The present band are well aware of their great heritage and give thanks to God for the way the band has been used in the past, and is committed to maintain the traditions and standards of Portsmouth Citadel Band.

Portsmouth Citadel Band currently has 37 members and is continuing to grow. The band's members are first and foremost committed Christians who wish to use their musical gifts to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ. The band has a large number of young people which enhances the energy and vitality of the band.

Portsmouth Citadel Band takes an active role in the corps mission to spread the news of the love of Jesus Christ to the surrounding community. The band regularly features at many high profile city events and has toured the UK extensively. The band has also had the opportunity to tour Europe and the USA on several occasions.

In November 2016 the band joined Her Majesty's Royal Marines Collingwood to lead the Remembrance Day service in Guildhall Square, Portsmouth, and it has featured at the Big Church Day Out, the biggest one-day Christian event in the UK, alongside such artists as Graham Kendrick, Matt Redman, TobyMac, Israel Houghton, and the King's Chamber Orchestra.

A wonderful opportunity to enjoy this famous and hugely accomplished band performing a selection of well known hymns and Christian music in concert, where it's quality and high standard can be fully appreciated.

A Choir jointly formed from members of the Anglican, Catholic and Baptist Churches in Waterlooville, will perform a selection of Anthems whilst the band take a short break.

The evening is under the Musical Direction of Roderick Starr, who is the Director of Music at St George's Church Waterlooville. Organ accompaniment is by Nigel Smith, who is organist at St Peter and St Paul Church, Fareham, as also accompanist for several local choirs, including the Hampshire Police Choir, Phoenix Singers and Opera Comique.

An Evening of Summer Music

PORTSMOUTH BAROQUE CHOIR
THE DOLCE QUARTET with trumpet and oboe

Musical Director: Malcolm Keeler

Portsmouth Baroque Choir currently has approximately 25 members. It perform a wide repertoire of music from the late Renaissance period to works of contemporary composers, including several works which have been written especially for the choir. Many works are performed unaccompanied, but it especially enjoys singing when accompanied by an orchestra or string quartet.

For this concert, the Choir will be performing celebratory music by Handel, plus the ever popular Vivaldi "Gloria"; beautiful singing, a delightful string quartet, perfect for an entertaining summer evening enjoying a civilized glass of Pimms during the interval. (An interval drink from the licensed bar is included).

Musical Director

Malcolm Keeler is Musical Director, having been appointed in 2008.

Malcolm graduated with a degree in Music from Royal Holloway College, London University, where he studied Organ with John Porter. As a member of their Schola Cantorum he has sung in many of the cathedrals in Southern England. For eleven years he was Organist and Choirmaster of St Mark's, Portsea, and has performed as a soloist for the Lee Singers and Midhurst Choral Society. He continues to sing and play at various sacred and secular events throughout the country.

THE BAND OF THE HAMPSHIRE CONSTABULARY

Musical Director: Major P.J Curtis MBE BMus(Hons) PGDip LRSM AMusTCL RM

The hugely popular and accomplished County Police Band, one of the few remaining police bands in the country, established 1895

Established for over 120 years, the Band of the Hampshire Constabulary is based at the Police Training Headquarters at Netley, Southampton. Its members are drawn from serving and retired staff of the Force, both police, support and from family members of the same. The band also welcomes players from outside the Force family where additional instrumentation is needed.

The Band of the Hampshire Constabulary's Concert Band is an entertaining symphonic band covering many genres of music from the original wind music to stage, show and pop tunes.

Musical Director, Major Pete Curtis is former Director of Music of the Band of Her Majesty's Royal Marines CTCRM, and Portsmouth (Royal Band), and currently Director of Music of the Band of Her Majesty's Royal Marines, Collingwood.

HAMPSHIRE GUITAR ORCHESTRA

Musical Director: Derek Hasted

The Hampshire Guitar Orchestra (hago) formerly Havant Area Guitar Orchestra began in 1999.

They have a reputation for unusual music presented with a real sense of fun and aim to change our audience's perception about classical guitar!

They are guitarists from Hampshire and neighbouring counties enjoying something really unusual. They play 4 different sizes of Guitar, like the different sizes in a recorder consort, brass band or string quartet.

They are one of handful of guitar orchestras in the country - free from the limitations of pitch that constrain guitar ensembles.

Hampshire Guitar Orchestra has been a frequent and hugely popular top attraction on the Waterlooville Music Festival programme over the years, with its entertaining and varied selection of fun music, mixed with the witty commentary of its leader, Derek Hasted.

Also this evening

EMSWORTH COMMUNITY SINGERS

Musical Director: Louise Russell

Emsworth Community Singers is a mixed voice choir established some 10 year ago. It has a wide repertoire of well known popular music from the hit parade, stage and screen. Its winter concert for Christmas 2016 was a popular event in Emsworth, when it was joined by the Meridian Wind Band, which regularly performs the "Last Night of the Proms" for Waterlooville Music Festival.

Last year its performance of a medley of Beatles songs received an "Outstanding" award at the Chichester Festival of Music Choir Competition.

Also in recent years the Choir has supported Chichester Community Theatre in its production of "Don't put your daughter on the stage Mrs Worthington", and performed in concert as part in the Chichester Festivities at the Assembly Rooms, Chichester.

FOLK AND ALE NIGHT

JIGFOOT

Traditional dance tunes - music that defies you to stay still!

Dancing led by a professional caller

Cabaret setting.
Dance floor. Late finish.
Make a party of it and bring a group of friends

Jigfoot play traditional dance tunes with energy, inventiveness and, above all, swing. This is music that defies you to stay still. They specialise in tunes from southern English sources, although also play tunes from other areas of the country too. Each arrangement starts from a simple melody, with the music growing and developing organically as they respond to each others' playing.

The evening includes dancing, with space set aside for a dance floor and the caller who will accompany the musicians and is able to cater for both beginners and experienced dancers.

also featuring

MEGAN LINFORD and Band

19 Year old, Hampshire based, contemporary folk singer/songwriter, Megan Linford can regularly be found performing at festivals and events across the South Coast and was the winner of the 2014 Sussex Young Folk Performer competition at the Southdowns Folk Festival.
